

General Education Courses

- Since 2015, GenED courses have been focused on developing cross-disciplinary skills and perspectives. They are not introductions to academic disciplines.
- Every GenED course has a signature assignment. Course work is ideally scaffolded around this assignment. Signature assignments are used for programmatic assessment.
- The capstone is the culmination of the program. Students deploy cross-disciplinary skills to pursue some self designed research project.

General Education Structure