

Who can approve them?

According to the General Education Administrative Structure approved by the Senate, October, 12th, 2015:

The Director of General Education will “Receive requests from departmental majors and programs for any waivers of General Education requirements and forward to GECAP for review.”

GECAP will “Review, approve, and announce any waivers of General Education program requirements granted to departmental majors and programs.”

GECAP!